

Workshop Objectives

At the completion of Level 2, you should have the clinical familiarity, knowledge and resources to integrate Gottman Method Couples Therapy assessment and intervention into your practice.

Upon completion you will be able to identify that you have level 2 training.

Who Should Attend?

This workshop is only available to graduates of the Gottman Level One training course. This three-day training is also the next step toward certification as a Gottman Therapist.

About The Gottman Institute

The Gottman Institute, co-founded by Drs. John and Julie Gottman, is an internationally renowned organization dedicated to researching and restoring relationships. Combining scientific expertise and clinical wisdom, The Gottman Institute applies leading-edge research on marriage in a practical, down-to-earth therapy and trains the therapists committed to helping couples.

The Gottman Model is based upon Dr. John Gottman's 35 years of research with over 3,000 couples. Based on intensive, detailed, and long-term scientific study of why marriages succeed or fail, John Gottman, in collaboration with Julie Gottman, has developed innovative assessment tools and intervention strategies to strengthen happy marriages and committed relationships, and support and repair troubled ones.
